

1_Air pollution caused by industrial fumes has been studied for years , but only recently has the harmful effects of noise pollution become known.

No error

2_The governor's aides are convinced that the announcement of the investigation, coming just days before the filing deadline, were calculated to discourage the governor from running for reelection

. No error

3 Also supported by the commission was the proposed health clinics and the proposed center to distribute information on job-training opportunities.

No error

4_ Critics contend that reforms in welfare has not managed to bring the high percentage of our nation's children living in poverty the economic security that they need to thrive. No error

5_The record left by fossils, the ancient remains of plants and animals, provide scientists with their primary source of information about prehistoric life.

No error

6_ Studying the language and culture of a foreign country is highly recommended to the tourist who expect to learn from his or her vacation abroad. No

error

7_ Available through the school's guidance office is a job directory and a list of job referral centers that provide information for students in need of employment. No error

8_ In the foothills of that large mountain range is the sources of a river whose course was not fully mapped until this century. No error

9 Mastery of cardiopulmonary resuscitation techniques are mandatory for firefighters and police officers as well as rescue squad volunteers. No error

10_ The use of irrigation in the once arid region have increased the production of corn and many other crops as well. No error

11_ The professor's insistence on high standards and rigorous examinations are not, despite what students think, part of a plan to withhold high grades from them. No error

12_ During the night, there is usually two German shepherds at the warehouse to guard against robbery attempts. No error.

13_ Although naturalists have identified six hundred different forms of the corion snail, there is actually no more than two true species within this genus. No error.

14_ Many nations, and The United Nations itself, has issued stamps that commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the UN charter. No error

15_ Observation of diverse animal species show that the most successful in the struggle of survival are those which are most adaptable to changes in their world ..No error

16_ At the heart of the program, enthusiastically endorsed by the city`s business association, is plans for refurbishing neighborhoods and for making low-interest mortgages available to young families. No error

17_ Although the details of the contract has not yet been announced, it is likely that union negotiators will accept the proposed training program for newly hired workers.No error

18_ The number of awards given this year to biochemists accentuate the significant gains being made in the study of the chemistry of living organisms. No error.

19_ The use of computers in the old fashioned company have increased sales by almost eighty percent. No error