

1 No matter where they came from or what their previous lifestyle is, the refugees were grateful for having been granted political asylum in the United States. No error

2 For the past five years, the members had continued the discussion of genetic issues raised by Charles Darwin in his theory of evolution which is familiar to many high school students. No error

3 Surely one of the most far-reaching changes in the Nineteenth century will be the change from working at home to working in the factory. No error

4 Fourteen years after the Galileo space probe was launched from the space shuttle Atlantis, the mission was purposely ended when the Galileo disintegrates in the dense atmosphere of the planet Jupiter. No error

5_ because he is absent when his rivals voted against his proposal, Selby is worried about missing future meetings of the board of directors. No error

6_ In 1850 Jim Beckworth, a Black American explorer, discovered in the mountains of Sierra Nevada a pass soon becoming an important gateway to California gold-rush country. No error

7_ Because the flood has made the bridge inaccessible to automobiles and pedestrians alike, we had rented a small boat to reach the island. No error

8_ Undoubtedly, more voters in the urban areas will have voted for Julia Morton if she had taken a less conservative stand on zoning codes than she did. No error.

9_ In the early days of the steam locomotive, compassionate engineers would sometimes have thrown coal overboard in poor neighborhoods. No error

10_ Unfortunately, the opening of the new library complex, previously scheduled for next September, would be delayed for several months because of construction difficulties.

No error

11_ She claimed the “representational” actor is having to imitate a character’s behavior, whereas the “presentational” actor attempts to reveal human behavior through self-understanding. No error.

12_ For the past hundred years or more, Yellowstone National Park was a kind of sociological laboratory in which North Americans have been exploring the meaning of the national-park concept. No error.

13_ Just when those who were watching from the sidelines feared the worst, the athletes themselves are the most confident. No error.

14_ Before he sprained his back, Morgan spends much of his leisure time engaged in outdoor sports, particularly hiking and canoeing. No error.

15_ In the past, the small nation had been committed to self-managed socialism, a system under which the workers, rather than the state, owns most enterprises. No error.