

1_ The report Alexander is discussing, a report prepared jointly by he and the committee, does not take into account the socioeconomic status of those interviewed. No error

2_ Apparently impressed with our plans, the foundation awarded Carlos and I a grant to establish a network of community centers throughout the city. No error

3_ For we students, concern about impending tuition hikes was even more acute than apprehension about final exams. No error

4_ The friendly competition between my older sister and I began as soon as we learned that our aunt had joked that she might write a will leaving her house to me alone. No error.

5_ Between the sales manager and I existed an easy, cooperative working relationship; neither of us hesitated to discuss problems. No error.

6 Ms. Tanaka asked Juan and I whether we would consider joining our school's quiz bowl team. No error.

7 My colleague and myself received an award for our paper on the accuracy with which a polygraph measures physiological processes. No error.